

2017

GERMANY

Rainer Kaase has been an attorney since 1989 and has experience in German and international trademark law, unfair competition, patents, medical products, cosmetics law, design law, and litigation in all areas of intellectual property law. He has often represented clients in the pharmaceutical industry. He gained his LLM from the University of Cambridge in 1985. Kaase is a member of the German Association for the Protection of Intellectual Property, the Pharmaceutical Trade Marks Group, and the Federal Association of Pharmaceutical Manufacturers.

Till E. Lampel was admitted to the Bar in 1992 and has experience in all areas of intellectual property. He represents clients in the food, clothing, banking, creative design, and automotive industries. He is a member of Marques, INTA, the German Association for the Protection of Intellectual Property, the German-American Lawyers' Association, the Association of Intellectual Property Experts, and the Society of Hamburg lawyers. Lampel has lectured on design rights for INTA and has spoken about IP law on many occasions.

Karin Sandberg was admitted to practise law in 1998 and has experience in all areas of intellectual property law. She has represented clients in the sports, food, beverage, clothing, luxury brand, and creative and design industries. Her notable cases include successfully representing Formula One in the F1 Live case before the Court of Justice of the European Union in 2012 and the General Court in 2014. Sandberg is a member of INTA, the Asian Patent Attorneys Association, and the German Association for the Protection of Intellectual Property. She has moderated panels at INTA events.

